

BSW 716 Services: Homemaker Chore

DEFINITION

Homemaker chore services are provided to members who are unable to manage their own home or when the individual normally responsible for these tasks is absent.

COVERED SERVICES

Homemaker chore activities include cleaning a home requiring extensive clean-up beyond the scope of general household cleaning available under the Homemaker service. These activities may include:

1. Heavy cleaning (e.g., washing windows or walls, shampooing carpets, etc.)
2. Yard care
3. Walkway maintenance
4. Minor home repairs
5. Wood chopping and stacking
5. ~~Costs associated with moving from one residence to another (as always try to access other resources first)~~
6. ~~REMOVED MOVING BECAUSE NOT IN ARM – HOW SHOULD WE APPROACH MOVING SUPPORT WHEN NOT TRANSITIONING OUT OF NH (e.g., house to house – other moves covered in community transition)?~~
